

When we chose to be included on our state's "do not call" list, it was to avoid all of these types of calls. If you want to make changes, why don't you initiate a "please call" list and leave the rest of us alone in the privacy of our own homes?